

HOT POT

火锅 (huǒguō), which literally means "fire-pot", is one of the most traditional and popular meals in China. It has a history of more than 1000 years, and China is regarded as the home of hotpot. It is generally assumed that the hotpot tradition came from Mongol warriors and horsemen who camped outside and had dinner together circled around a pot on the fire – it was a way to keep warm, while eating at the same time.

The concept is very simple: a simmering metal pot with broth, boils at the center of a table or in front of each person and diners can add and cook the raw ingredients of their choice in the broth such as fresh thinly sliced meat, leafy vegetables, mushrooms, noodles, sliced potatoes, soy bean products, dumplings, seafood, etc, and then combine with a variety of sauces.

It's not just that you get to cook and eat what you like but you get to do this while socializing, chatting, drinking and having fun with your friends and family, hence, a delicious and fun communal dining experience.

Allow us to unfold for you a culinary journey through the captivating and personalised hot pot experience provided by our dedicated team.
